

INFORMATION NOTE

“FAO Regional workshop on Opportunities and Challenges in Economic and Post-Harvest Issues related to Market Access for Fisheries and Aquaculture Products”

Bali, Indonesia
1 to 3 October 2024

Meeting Location: Bali, Indonesia

Bali is an Indonesian island known for its forested volcanic mountains, iconic rice paddies, beaches and coral reefs. The island is home to religious sites such as cliffside Uluwatu Temple. In the southern part of Bali, Kuta offers a bustling nightlife with its lively bars, while Seminyak, Sanur, and Nusa Dua are well-known for their popular resort destinations.

Uluwatu Temple - one of the Bali's most famous temples, thanks to its magnificent clifftop setting. It presides over plunging sea cliffs above one of Bali's top surfing locations.

Ubud - the heart of Balinese art and culture, this is where the contemporary Balinese art movement originated, with the nearby royal palaces and temples serving as its primary patrons.

Ubud Art Market - carvings, sculptures, jewelry, sarongs, paintings, and homewares and is one of the top tourist attractions in Ubud.
